Don't talk home

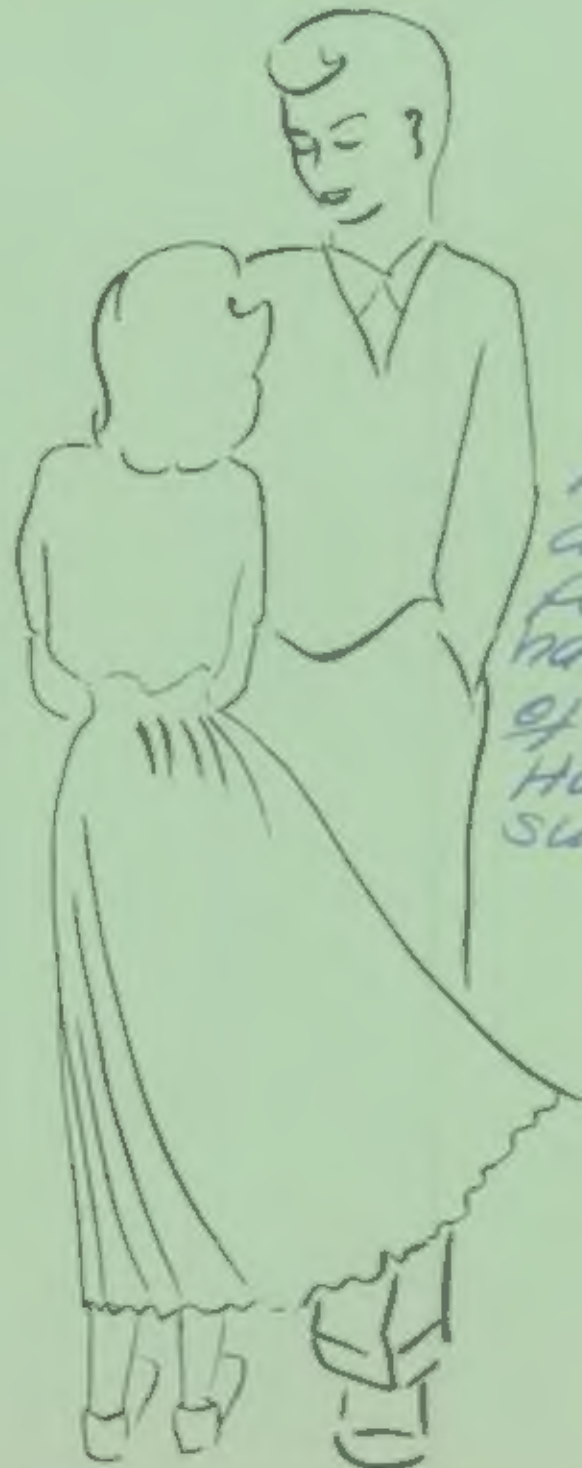

Dear Don,
Just think we've known each other for about 10 yrs. When you stop to think about it that's a long time isn't it. We've sure had a lot of fun together. I remember in the 6th grade we were talking about boats and your mother was visiting the boat and you talked about the different parts of the "head" was then nobody knew and you said it was the bathroom. I never laughed so hard in my whole life. It's really been fun and hope you in some of my classes next year. Have fun this summer

Dear Don -
 golly this class
 has certainly been an awful lot of fun - but we sure

Dear Don.
Well, this year is about over. I can remember my didn't it in you and Jerry's math that was so long ago but it seems like only yesterday. I hope we had a great time at the castle.
I've been wishing you a lot of luck in years to come. I hope you have as much fun here at the castle.
Love to a great guy.

Dear Don:
Well, now you only have two more years left at the old Castle. I only hope it was as much fun as mine was.
Keep good care of the school and Don't forget the old seniors to fast. Best of Luck.

MR. CLAYTON JOHNSON

Dedication

We, the class of 1952, dedicate this Tahoma to Mr. Clayton Johnson.

While at Stadium, Mr. Johnson has trained and directed the orchestra, Girls' Glee Club, Concert Chorus, and Boys' Glee. Every one of us has benefited from his efforts and it is with deep sincerity that we say, "We'll miss you."

"The Firefly," was Mr. Johnson's 30th annual opera. Stadium has been indeed fortunate during these years to have had a music teacher like Mr. Johnson, who has brought us the best in musical productions.

Mr. Johnson graduated from the College of Puget Sound and was director of its music department for four years. After taking his music degree at the Chicago Musical College he returned to Tacoma and assumed the direction of our music department.

Mr. Johnson is leaving after 30 years of directing the music groups here at Stadium.

We know you will continue to give others the inspiration and pleasure that you have given us.

Fall World

'This small, but enthusiastic, staff has done an excellent job of maintaining and advancing the standards of The Stadium World' says Mrs. Cook, adviser. These students were not afraid to crusade and in this way were able to bring school problems to the attention of the student body.

The appearance of The World was changed and given a more modern look by doing away with column rules, changing the name plate and altering some of the regular headlines.

Besides their journalistic duties, this staff found the time and imagination to present the winning skit in football night.

Reporters on the fall World staff were: Louise Balsano, Donna Bradley, Bruce Briggs, Janet McCormack, Doug Roeder, Shirley Sayre, Barbara Schaller.

Basketball

With a season record of 21 wins and 4 losses, the Tigers achieved one of the best records in Stadium's history. The squad, mostly seniors, began the year by winning the Hoop-Go-Round. Then the "Cinderella Boys" won eight straight city league games and the city title.

In Cross-State play the Stadium team lost only two games, placing second. In the district play-off Stadium earned a berth in the state meet at Seattle and the third championship of the year. At the state meet the Tigers won their first game from Puyallup but lost their last two games by close scores to Roosevelt and Bremerton to rate sixth in the state.

Thus closed one of Stadium's best seasons.

Tahoma

Shouting orders to the staff, reminding them of the near deadline, keeping them busy every minute were the editor, Anna Mae Hoyt, and the Tahoma Adviser, Mr. Toney Shelton. They were aided by the editorial adviser, Mrs. Cook, the associate editor, Barbra Wilson, and the business manager, Dick Hamby.

Writing a summary of the activities and officers of the clubs and organizations, sports, music events, typing senior write-ups and making picture layouts were only some of the numerous jobs the editorial staff accomplished during the year. Those on the staff were Louise Basano, Mariene Budi, Barbara Hagen, Jackie Jones, Bannie Jordahl, Mary LaRocque, Eleanor Martin, Miltzie Pinch, and Sandy Shields.

Diane Dorman and Sally Nelsen, this year's art staff, designed the cover, division pages and pin sketches.

Students were allowed their preference of Claude Harta, Lutz, Penthouse, Bert Perer, Peterson, Smith and Stolz studios for their senior pictures. The staff photographer was Dave White, however, the group pictures were taken by Mr. Dave Smith.

Printing and engraving contracts were awarded to Johnson Cox and the Tacoma Engraving Company, respectively.

An additional project which the Tahoma staff managed this year was the football programs which were published in the fall for the home games. Many long hours were spent securing enough ads from the local business firms and stores to help make this project a success. For each program, stories were written of the players and of the results of the previous games. The entire staff worked together on these publications and the additional income was a great help to the activity fund.

Opera

'The Firefly', by Rudolph Friml, was Stadium's thirtieth annual musical production presented by Mr. Johnson, director of music and his entire aggregation. The Boys and Girls Glee Clubs, the orchestra, the dancing chorus and the ensemble, consisting of the Stadium Concert Chorus, all took part in the presentation, March 27, 28 and 29.

The story, set in Bermuda and New York, starred Joyce Coates as Nina, an Italian street singer, and Bob Roberts as Jack Travers, her esteemed suitor. Shirley Baker played Geraldine, a wealthy socialite and fiancée of Jack. Thurston, Jack's uncle, was portrayed by Barrie Brush, who finally won the heart of Geraldine. Florence Johnson took the part of Sybil Van Dare, the girl still tied to her mother's apron strings, and Meriel Geger played her social minded mother who invited some guests for a Bermuda cruise. Dave Ernst as Mrs. Van Dare's confidential secretary, Jenkins, supplied much of the opera's humor. Geraldine's maid, Suzette, was portrayed by Delores Crandall. Her love interest was Pietro, Thurston's Italian valet, played by Stuart Glibreath. Pryse Durefeldt was Herr Franz, a choir director. Mary Gibbs played Tony Colombo, New York's cleverest pick pocket, Eddie Larson was heard as the captain of Mrs. Van Dare's cruiser, while Bim Harris was a sailor.

Mr. Evans was the dramatics director.

Supervisors who directed behind the scenes were Mary Gibbs, Bonnie Jordahl, Marion Schwartz and Gloria Stevens. Their assistants were Margery Abels, Marlene Grytness, Helen Husby, Barbara Isaacson, Jessie Padgett and Alice Vaughn.

Piano accompanists were Anita Anarde, Betty Anderson, Sharon Gasman and Marlene Prosser.

Adding greatly to the production was the dancing chorus, which presented three numbers, including a tap solo by Lynne Stewart and a ballet by Genevieve Johnston, the student dance director.

Luisenschule

The Affiliation Committee met with Mr. Daniel, adviser, for one period every day this year. The first semester's committee was composed of seven girls and the second semester's had five. Barbara Hagen was chairman both semesters.

During the first semester the committee sent scrapbooks on the Puyallup Fair and the Grid-Gor-Round to Luisenschule, presented an affiliation assembly and a tea for the foreign students at Stadium, and attended the American Friends Service conference in Seattle. The seven Hi-Y's gave the school a United Nations flag during the affiliation assembly. The plan for having every club send something to Luisenschule during the year was originated by this committee. They also enjoyed Dr. Friedluse Heinrich's visit.

The second semester's affiliation committee spent time wrapping and mailing records, books and other gifts from various Stadium clubs. It was during this semester that most of the final arrangements were made for bringing Helga Rummeld Tilk from Germany next year, and the committee had the pleasure of entertaining Barbara Clough and Mrs. Polly Victor of the American Friends. They came here to explain how Stadium could prepare for our visitor. Along with many letters to the Luisenschule Affiliation Committee, they sent Valentines and an Easter basket to them.

Miss Baser's health classes took a very active part in affiliation by sending the makings for parties, letters and cards throughout the year. Miss Blaser also accompanied the committee to Seattle and acted as another adviser along with Mr. Daniel.

Sophomore Class

Starting off its first year at the Castle, the class of 1954 elected Dick Peterson, president; Bill Thordarson, vice president; Shirley Green, secretary; Bill Redfield, treasurer; Nancy Otto, girls' representative, and Stef Thordarson, boys' representative.

The sophomore assembly, a tradition at Stadium for many years, was under the chairmanship of Carol Dodge and Pete Swan. This assembly was regarded as one of the finest in recent years.

This enthusiastic class also had many cake and cookie sales, along with a booth in the Girls' Club Carnival.

Proving their interest in school activities, Karin Arnold, Margie Hurlong and Nancy Wessberg were elected to be on Girls' Council.

Gwen Guay and Shirlee Hunter were chosen as two of next year's majorettes.

Completing a very busy year, the class ended their activities with the annual May dance under the direction of Carol Drahold and Chuck Ridge.

Miss Davies and Mr. Berndt were the class advisers.

Myrt Troseth and Mack Gordon were elected as girl and boy representatives to Student Council.

The first showing this year of the unusual ability of this class was the junior assembly, entitled Admiral's Holiday. The front of the stage was decorated to appear like a boat and the many acts displayed went off smoothly. Cochairmen Anne Wilde and Eric Bremner were commended on their fine work.

Carol Crossman was chosen as next year's Tahoma editor and Thelma Bunnell was one of the outstanding girls in the oratorical field.

Cochairmen of the annual junior prom were Georgia Sutton and Wayne Buck. The decorations for this formal dance portrayed the skyscrapers of New York to carry out the theme of the dance, "Manhattan Mood."

Later activities of the year were a cupcake sale, a booth in the Girls Club Carnival, the choosing of commencement ushers, and cochairmen for the Farewell to Seniors dance.

The two Junior Class advisers, Miss Hertzberg and Mr. Ettinger, were outstanding in their work of counseling the cabinet and cochairmen of all the affairs of the class.

This was the third and final chapter of the Class of 1952. Their officers, president, Dave Mesler, vice president, Bob Patterson, secretary, Pat McGavick, treasurer, Eulene Isaacson, boys representative, Dave Hedberg, and girls representative Joan Scott, planned the events of the year with the help of Mrs. Hokanson and Mr. DuBois, class advisers.

First was Sadie Hawkins day with its cochairmen, Gayle Baker and Tom Hazen, followed by the "Scalp U. Scuffle," with its cochairmen, Mary Gibbs and Tom Names.

Then came the Senior Class play, "Lost Horizon", starring Idel en Haakinson, Marie Harte and Woody McClellan, under the direction of Mr. Evans.

Publications got under way with Betty Lou Kenton, editor, and Gloria Jorgensen, business manager, heading the World Staff, and Anna Mae Hoyt, editor, Dick Hamby, business manager, and Barbra Willson, associate editor, directing the Tahoma staff.

Bev Tropiano and Bill Kister were cochairmen of the senior sweater dance, "Rebel's Ramble". Meanwhile, Nancy Berry, Marie Harte and Rosie Kvernvik were chosen to be daffodil attendants.

The time had grown short and the seniors were preparing the climax of their story with the senior ball, "Neptune's Fantasy," cochairmen, Joan Osen, John Raynor, senior banquet, cochairmen, Ruth e Nichols, Leland Wate, senior assembly, cochairmen, Grace Seto, Gene Robinson, and senior day, cochairmen, Janet McCormack, John Binns.

The last paragraph is of commencement and baccalaureate services. The three valedictorians were Betty Anderson, Dave Mesler and Roberta Schelp. The commencement committee included the top 19 of the class plus the Senior Class officers and the class advisers.

The book is finished and now comes the time for the first chapter in a new book . . .

Memoriam

CHUCK HEALY

In the exciting weeks before graduation when our minds are so crowded with plans for that day, we will pause to remember, as we will always remember, the happy go lucky, always smiling Chuck, with whom we had shared so many experiences. He showed the spirit that we all have but seldom are sincere enough to show.

Chuck filled his year and a half at Stadium with activities. He played in the band and as a sideline led his own small dance band, which had been popular even during his days at Mason Junior High. Although he was active in all sports, his favorites were basketball and hockey. Chuck was forward on the sophomore basketball team and played goalie on a hockey team which he himself organized. The activities of Royal Hi-Y took much of his time and interest.

We still feel deeply the loss of our friend, as he was everyone's friend. And yet maybe Chuck Healy is using the glow of his personality to kindle the spark of more friendships in another world. If he is, it is well, for he will be adding to their lives as he did to ours.

I am very busy at present but will try to write you more fully when I have time. I am sure you will understand my situation. I am sure you will be glad to hear from me again.
